A Message from Headmaster Johnson

Dear Parents,

What a joyous, busy time of the year! It is hard to believe the holiday season is already upon us. I am not exaggerating when I say that we have had a very busy first semester. Our accreditation visit went very well; the team was quite impressed with our school. Our teachers do an amazing job every day, bell to bell. It is crucial that we not take that for granted; that is not always the case in a school. Our support staff is also top-notch, and their support for our teachers is imperative for our school's success.

Clay County District Schools also sent a team to evaluate us for charter renewal, and they too were extremely impressed. This is the fruit of five years of perseverance by our Board of Directors, our administration and staff, and our teachers. I can state that there is no better school around. I am so thankful to be a part of SJCA's mission!

Speaking of being thankful, our success is also attributed to you, for sending your children to this school. As I stand out at car line twice a day, I am always thankful for our parents, along with our faculty and staff. Working together, we are making a difference in American education. This movement is gaining steam, and we all play a key role in its success. Thank you for partnering with us, and I hope you have a very Merry Christmas with family and friends.

Lion Strong!

Mr. Johnson

Looking to the Future: SJCA's Strategic Goals and Alignment to the Academy's Vision

By Mrs. Maegen Satcher, Dean of Academics

As most of you know, the Academy has recently gone through the accreditation process, which assisted us in committing to a continuous improvement. Part of that process included outlining our strategic priorities and goals and sharing them with the Cognia team and the Clay County School District. These priorities align with the school's vision statement, which states, "the vision of St. Johns Classical Academy is to offer a unique option that provides students with classical education. Scholars will receive a cohesive Classical education, which builds upon itself year after year, creating a successful foundation for learning. Scholars will be intentionally taught the benefits of virtuous character and will be challenged through the lessons taught within the curriculum to develop and strengthen their character. Our teachers will provide the support and attention scholars require in order to meet the high expectations of a Classical education." SJCA's vision pushes us to consider the Academy's future, provides a sense of direction, and is essential to planning the strategies we intend to implement. A key element that exists in our vision includes our relationship with our stakeholders. Therefore, it is important we take a moment to share our goals with our community and explain how they align with our vision statement.

First, we want to retain all of our scholars through graduation. Classical education exists to serve students from kindergarten through twelfth grade. We do not consider our work to be complete unless students are able to reap the benefits of a comprehensive high school curriculum. Often Hillsdale schools experience what is commonly referred to as the eighth-grade melt, which means many scholars will leave Classical education to attend other local high schools that offer more in terms of athletics and extracurricular options. SJCA is working diligently to build a gymnasium for its scholars. As has been communicated previously, the gym will be used to host various athletic events, concerts, fine arts performances, and other special events such as school dances. In addition to building a gym, the Academy intends to continue to improve the physical capacity and capabilities of its current campus by increasing space for Upper School parking, enlarging the soccer field, and constructing exterior restrooms. These initiatives are meant to increase the options available to scholars. We are committed to providing a Classical education through graduation.

Second, SJCA endeavors to become a Hillsdale K-12 certified school. Much like accreditation, certification earns SJCA a gold star. It sends a public message that we are committed to teaching the Hillsdale K-12 program with fidelity and excellence. Similarly, other schools will look to SJCA as a Hillsdale K-12 model school. Our scholars are taught very intentionally using the Hillsdale K-12 Program Guide, and through it, they learn the benefits of virtuous character. The lessons are designed to challenge scholars, which ultimately, will develop and strengthen their character. Through Hillsdale Certification, citizens eager to start their own schools will be able to visit SJCA as a model of excellence; school administrators and teachers will be encouraged to observe our instructional practices; parents will know that SJCA is highly effective in its Classical educational offerings.

Third, the Academy has recently earned High Performing Charter Status through the Florida Department of Education by earning subsequent A ratings, as measured by standardized testing. We believe a Classical education prepares scholars for any test they face. Our curriculum is rich in content and our reading practices are superior in how students are taught to read and write. As we progress through the years, we seek to retain this designation.

Finally, as a public charter school, SJCA is a proponent of school choice. We believe parents should have options when choosing the type of school their scholar attends. Since we have been successful at the Fleming Island campus, we would like to replicate at another campus in Clay County. Our unique option provides parents with the option of sending their scholar to a Classical school. Demand exists as exhibited by our waitlist, and we would like to extend this particular option to the families who desire it for their scholars.

All of these goals are at different stages of development, but they exist to set our eyes on the future. Our stakeholders play a key role in making them come to fruition. We thank each and every person who is devoted to the school's mission and vision for the role they play in the successes we have experienced thus far and those still to come.

Instrumental Music Concert

Please join us for our annual Winter Concert of the Instrumental Musicians of Band 1 and Band 2/3/4 on Monday, Dec 13, 2021 at 6:00 pm in the SJCA cafeteria. Music from movies, Broadway, and holiday favorites will captivate audiences of all ages. Don't miss this celebration of timeless classics and surprises!

Hillsdale Graduate: Historical Connection to Jacksonville

Mrs. Becky Lincoln, the Hillsdale K-12 Director of Teacher Support, shared this article with the Academy about a woman named Mary Blackmar who graduated from Hillsdale College in the 1850s. Ms. Blackmar went on to work as a nurse during the Civil War, had the opportunity to see President Lincoln, and eventually became a medical doctor. Ms. Blackmar set up her medical practice in Jacksonville in 1870. To read more, click here to learn about this Hillsdale Hero.

1776 Curriculum

Do you have friends who homeschool or are traditional classroom teachers who would be interested in teaching a complete curriculum of American history and civics lessons in their K12 classrooms? If so, please recommend the 1776 Curriculum, authored by Hillsdale College. This curriculum is modeled on the civic education students at Hillsdale-affiliated K-12 schools receive. It is available for free to any public-school teacher, private-school teacher, or homeschool family who desires a comprehensive and high-quality history and civics curriculum. The initial stages were released this past July. The remaining history portions will be released in early 2022. Hillsdale K12 believes this curriculum will be good for America's students and for America itself. As a Hillsdale K-12 school, we want to assist the College in spreading the word out about this excellent history resource. It can be downloaded at the Hillsdale K12 website: <https://k12.hillsdale.edu>. More information is available also available on YouTube. Dr. Kathleen O'Toole and Jordan Adams explain details of the curriculum in these videos that were live-streamed last month.
